TOWLSTON July the 30th. 1768 —

DEAR SIR

Since I wrote to you last I have reced a Letter from Dr. Savage wherein he says that his Wife acknowledges that she had once in a discontented Mood expressed a Dislike to parting with the Bond, but that she had fully convinced me at our last meeting of her earnest desire to relinquish it: At the same time Mrs. Savage also wrote to me begging a thousand pardons of you & me for the trouble she had given us, and mentions her Intention of going to Ireland immediately, and desires the Bond may be given up. I am to acknowledge your favor of the 25th: and entirely agree with you in Sentiments — I have thought proper to mention the contents of the two last Letters, tho' I don't know that it can make any Alteration in our proceedings to obtain the Sum due.

I remain Dr. Sir Your most obedt. Servt. BRYAN FAIRFAX.
